ANOTHER BIG FIRE IN POLK BURNS BARN

JOHN AND JOSEPH KARN LOSE HEAVILY IN BUILDINGS AND PERSONAL PROPERTY CONTENTS.

HAVE SMALL INSURANCE

Explosion of Lantern Causes Fire—Hired Man Dragged From Burning Building By Francis Karn.

Another bad fire in Polk township Tuesday night burned three buildings about fifteen tons of hay, some harness and other articles for John Karn and his son Jodie Karn, who lived on the place.

Francis Karn, son of Joseph, went out to the barn with the lantern at about 10:30 to put the canvas back on the threshing machine. The high wind had blown this off. Francis stumbled or fell with the lantern, striking it against the barn. It exploded and the barn was at once in a blaze. With much presence of mind Francis rushed to the loft where the hired man, Elmer Hively, was sleeping and dragged him out just in time to save him from cremation. He had been asleep and knew nothing of what was going on.

The threshing machine stood by the barn and it was with difficulty that this was pulled away so it would not burn. The engine was attached and while it was being pulled to another barn in the neighborhood fire broke out on the inside of the separator, causing much damage to the machine before they could put it out. How this fire started is not known.

The main barn was burned with all its contents, including about 15 tons of hay, harness and other articles. This building was 18x30. On one side of it was a horse barn and on the other a cow barn, both of which were destroyed. The barn belonged to John Karn and the contents to his son, Joseph. There was $200 of insurance on the barn and $200 on the contents. The loss above the insurance will probably reach $1000. There was insurance of $500 on the threshing machine, which will cover the loss on that.
